

UNIVERSIDAD
DE GRANADA

University of Delhi

ERASMUS + PROGRAMME. INTERNATIONAL CREDIT MOBILITY (K107) INFORMATION FOR PARTNER UNIVERSITIES

University of Granada, Spain is a partner of University of Delhi for the implementation of Erasmus + Program, International Credit Mobility (K107).

Under the mobility scheme, one scholarship for PhD studies (3 months) is available at the University of Granada, Spain. PhD students of University of Delhi who are registered for a PhD at the University of Delhi and have completed two years and also successfully completed their PhD coursework are eligible to apply. The students can spend up to 3 months in UGranada and the scholarship will cover return airfare and a subsistence allowance. Upon completion of the scholarship period, students will be required to return to University of Delhi for completion of their PhD.

All areas of study are covered. However, students should visit www.ugr.es to see if collaborations in the area of their interest are possible. Students who already have some established contact with UGranada will get preference.

A single pdf file containing a CV of the student with a summary of research interests, a scan of the passport, a name/proof of contact with UGranada and covering letter forwarded by the PhD supervisor may be sent to the email address deanir.du@gmail.com before November 15, 2021. Selected student will be required to complete the mobility by July 31, 2022.

Office of International Relations
Room No. 12, Conference Centre
University of Delhi
October 23, 2021