

International Opportunity - PROM Programme PUK Krakow

Pedagogical University of Krakow, Poland is in charge of the PROM programme financed from Polish National Agency for Academic Exchange.

Under the PROM Program, Pedagogical University of Krakow is inviting applications from Ph.D. students (under 40 years) of the University of Delhi to apply for the participation in scientific conferences and summer/winter schools as well as organise the short-term visit for obtaining materials for a PhD thesis/scientific work in any Department of their University.

The mobility is financially supported by Pedagogical University of Krakow (travel costs, accommodation and other charges if necessary will be refund on place).

Interested students may apply directly to the Pedagogical University of Krakow, the recruitment procedure is published on the programme's website:
